Delivering Resuscitation Excellence to Improve Real-Life Outcomes

Meets competency verification, education, credentialing and privileging requirements.

Accepted by state EMS agencies in all 50 states; the Commission on Accreditation of Medical Transport Systems (CAMTS), and the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technician (NREMT) National Continued Competency Program (NCCP).

Approved for EMS continuing education by the Commission on Accreditation for Pre-Hospital Education (CAPCE).

Satisfies The Joint Commission resuscitation education requirements for an evidence based program (Standard PC.02.01.11).

Deliver high-quality resuscitation with a flexible training solution.

Choose a cost-effective program that saves time through adaptive learning.

Ready to learn more about advancing your agency’s resuscitation competency?
redcross.org/healthcare